

Yesterday Swing Orchestra

The Yesterday Swing Orchestra, under the direction of Bob Johnson, is the Shenandoah Valley's best source for authentic Big Band entertainment. The classic sounds of Glen Miller, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Artie Shaw and others are brought to life by this full eighteen piece musical ensemble. Vocalist Vicki Petrosky adds additional excitement to the performance with stunning and soulful renditions of standards made famous by Ella Fitzgerald, Judy Garland, Natalie Cole, Sarah Vaughn and other great vocal talents.

Why just listen when you can dance too! The Yesterday Swing Orchestra performs music to complement a full range of dance styles including swing numbers, waltzes, tangos, polkas, and slow romantic melodies that allow you to dance close with the one you love.

Our recent venues include the Embassy of Italy Washington, DC, the Oasis Winery, Georgetown Visitation Preparatory School, Christendom College, Bowling Green Country Club, and First Night Winchester.

Whether you're looking to "cut a rug", practice your ballroom techniques, or simply spend an enjoyable evening listening to the sounds of the 1930's, 1940's and 1950's — the Yesterday Swing Orchestra will exceed your expectations.
